represented by his/her parent(s) or guardian(s)

Enrolment for _____ (grade), _____ (year)

Introductory statement

Foxhill Bilingual International School (hereinafter called Foxhill Secondary School) is a non-profit society which aims at supporting children and young people, especially with regard to their linguistic skills, as well as at improving the general knowledge of children and young people in school-related and social contexts.

The school is subject to regular controls by the responsible District School Inspector who will check that the regulations under public law are observed. The school's curriculum is in accordance with § 3 of the Austrian School Organisation Act (Schulorganisationsgesetz).

1. Purpose of agreement

- 1.1. The purpose of this agreement is to provide for schooling and training of students within the framework of Foxhill Secondary School's Organisation Statutes which forms an integral part of this agreement (see attachment). Schooling consists of conveying the necessary knowledge in two languages (English and German). With the exception of breaks between lessons, students are not supervised during their free time.
- 1.2. At present the school is run at Martinsbuehel 6, 6170 Zirl near Innsbruck. No change of location is intended during the current school year. A change of location within 25 kilometres from the present location shall not affect the mutual obligations under the present agreement.
- 1.3. Foxhill Secondary School strives to make it possible for students to attend school until the end of primary school years (grades 1 to 4).

2. Rights and responsibilities of Foxhill Secondary School

- 2.1. Foxhill Secondary School undertakes to ensure an orderly operation of the school in accordance with its mission statement. Please see the Organisation Statutes for details.
- 2.2. To ensure the orderly operation of the school, cooperation between Foxhill Secondary School and the students as well as their parents is necessary. Foxhill Secondary School will keep the parents informed about current school life in the course of information evenings and parent- teacher conferences.
- 2.3. Under special circumstances Foxhill Secondary School reserves the right to prematurely terminate this agreement should the behaviour of students or disregard for school rules disrupt, impair or prevent the orderly operation of the school and efforts at cooperation with the parents have been unsuccessful.

3. Rights and responsibilities of students and their parents

3.1. Students shall be entitled to an education in accordance with the school's mission statement as declared in the Organisation Statutes. Students are obliged to personally attend classes, uphold school rules and regulations, and to positively and actively partake in school activities and operations.

3.2. Parents undertake to attend information evenings and parent-teacher conferences on a regular basis.

3.3. In order to meet the students' requirements, organisational and staffing considerations must be planned a year in advance. The parents are aware of this and agree to notify the school board of any planned change of school by the latest 3 months before the end of the current school term (please see clause 5.1. below for details regarding the school calendar). Should parents fail to do so, they understand that they will be invoiced for the following term's fees.

3.4. The parents expressly confirm having read and understood the Organisation Statutes and declare their consent to it.

3.5. The parents undertake to collect the student punctually after lessons or to ensure that he/she is collected. The parents take note of the fact that there is no supervision by staff members after the end of the day's lessons.

3.6. Foxhill Secondary School shall be entitled to transfer the power to care for and supervise the student unto staff members. Foxhill Secondary School is further empowered to ensure that, in cases of emergency, the student receives medical attention through a medical examination or by having him/her transferred to hospital. Foxhill Secondary School is obliged to inform the parents immediately should medical care appear necessary.

5. School calendar, holidays

5.1. The school calendar follows the legal regulations for education in state primary and secondary schools in the county of Tirol. Classes are held from Monday through Friday. The school year usually begins on the first Monday in September (can vary); it ends at the beginning of the new school year. A school year consists of two terms. The first term begins with the first day of the school year and ends at the start of the mid-term break (usually the second Monday in February). The second term begins on the Monday following the mid-term break and ends at the beginning of the summer holidays which is on a Saturday, on the 5th July at the earliest, on the 11th July at the latest. Furthermore, no classes are held on state holidays and on the school's discretionary holidays. On days when no classes are held the school is closed.

5.2. School hours may be adapted to pedagogical and organisational needs by Foxhill Secondary School together with the principal and the staff.

6. School fees

6.1. The currently applicable school fee is EUR 3,200.00 per term (half year). The full school fee for one term is payable at least 7 working days before the beginning of term. It must be paid in full to the following account and state the payment purpose ('school fee, term..., student name'):

RAIKA Tirol Mitte West eGen, Tirol, Austria

IBAN: AT63-3633-6000-0134-3805

BIC: RZTIAT223336

6.2. An eventual fee increase will be announced by the 15th February of the current school year. It shall be valid as from the beginning of the following school year.

6.3. The school fees must be paid within 7 days of the due dates referred to in clause 6.1. of this agreement. In the event of a late payment arrears interest at the rate of one per cent per month will be charged. If a payment is overdue for more than six weeks, the parents also undertake to refund the cost of out-of-court-collection by a legal representative authorised by Foxhill Secondary School. Furthermore, if the fee is not paid in good time, Foxhill Secondary School is entitled to prematurely terminate this agreement.

6.4. School fees include costs for normal tuition without instruction materials (see clause 8.). The parents undertake to pay in advance any additional costs, e.g. expenses for sports (swimming, skiing) weeks, school outings, accommodation, board, admission fees or similar purposes, within 10 days from the receipt of a written notice. Clause 6.3. is applicable to these payments.

6.5. For students entering or departing during the term the full fee for that term (6 months) will be charged. In the event of an early withdrawal from Foxhill Secondary School the school fee is not refunded.

6.6. Foxhill Secondary School offers a sibling discount on term fees only. This should be discussed with the school board when enrolling a student.

6.7. There is no right to a reduction or refund of school fees if single classes or all classes on single days have to be cancelled due to circumstances outside the responsibility of Foxhill Secondary School, e.g. snowfall, floods, fire, strike, illness, epidemics, health hazards, etc.

7. Enrolment fee

7.1. A non-recurring enrolment fee of EUR 600 (six hundred) shall be due when the pupil has been definitively enrolled in Foxhill Secondary School. It must be paid to the account mentioned in clause 6.1., stating the payment purpose ('enrolment fee, name of pupil'). For organisational reasons this fee is not refunded unless the pupil is prevented from entering school solely through the fault of Foxhill Secondary School. The enrolment fee shall be payable on receipt of invoice. Pupils that have left school within a period of two years and want to return must pay 50 percent of the enrolment fee. If the enrolment fee is still outstanding on the due date Foxhill Secondary School will regard this agreement as null and void.

7.2. The annual society membership fee is EUR 300 (three hundred) per family.

8. School books and school uniform

8.1. Students are required to wear the relevant Foxhill Secondary School uniform on the school premises as well as at all school events outside those premises. If the student repeatedly refuses to wear the designated school uniform Foxhill Secondary School is entitled to terminate this agreement. It is incumbent on the parents to care for the uniform clothes. Suitable indoor slippers (without metal zips, buckles, etc) for wearing indoors on the school premises are required.

8.2. All instructional materials remain the property of Foxhill Privatschule – private school. Work completed by students is sent home with them on a weekly basis, for parents to see and observe progress being made. All instructional materials are protected by intellectual copyright laws.

9. Data protection

9.1. Any photographs of students commissioned by the school and taken in the course of the school year during classes or at celebrations or sport events, etc., may be reproduced for internal use in school magazines and on flyers as well as in press releases or on our website and in social networks (e.g. Facebook). This right is free of charge and cannot be revoked during a period of 7 years. After that period a written revocation is possible.

9.2. Furthermore, the parents herewith give their consent to the use of the student's and the parents' personal data for necessary administrative and legal documentation purposes. This consent also includes the use of sensitive data according to the Austrian Data Protection Act (Datenschutzgesetz), in particular where it may be deemed necessary for medical reasons or the consideration of religious beliefs.

10. Declaration

10.1. The student and the parents acknowledge the relevant school rules.

They declare their acceptance of the educational concept and the objectives and learning content of Foxhill Secondary School and they will endeavour to give the school all possible support.

10.2. The parents declare their willingness to continuously accompany and support the student's learning efforts and to regularly attend information meetings/evenings.

10.3. The parents agree to give their support to the school's curricula and extra-curricula projects that are in accordance with the concept of the school.

10.4. The parents declare that they have notified the school of any health-related problems, learning difficulties and discipline problems that may affect school life. If it should appear that the student has learning difficulties or disciplinary shortcomings that cannot be remedied by Foxhill Secondary School, the parents are prepared to withdraw the student from school if the board of Foxhill Secondary School so decides. The date of withdrawal shall be determined by the principal.

11. Duration and termination of this agreement

11.1. This agreement shall remain in force until the highest grade offered by Foxhill Secondary School (to date: year 4/grade 4) will have been completed by the student. However, either party can terminate the agreement before that time without giving reasons (ordinary termination). For organisational and staffing reasons an ordinary termination shall only be possible until the 31st March of the current school year. It must be declared in writing. An ordinary termination becomes effective as from the beginning of the next school year and it does not affect the obligation to pay the agreed-upon school fee for the current school year (see clause 6.5.).

11.2. An immediate termination of the agreement by Foxhill Secondary School shall be possible during the school year if the student or the parents seriously compromise the objectives of Foxhill Secondary School or seriously disregard the school rules or if cooperation based on mutual confidence with the principal, teachers and members of the school board is no longer possible.

12. Miscellaneous

12.1. Foxhill Secondary School would like to draw attention to the fact that there are pets on the school premises. These pets move freely on the premises and also have access to the school building. They undergo a veterinary examination once a year. Before a student comes to school it must be ascertained whether he/she suffers from any allergies. If so, the school must be notified.

12.2. Amendments to this agreement shall be in writing. This also applies to the revocation of the written form requirement. There are no additional oral agreements between the parties. This agreement shall replace all prior agreements between the parties thereof.

12.3. If any of the provisions of this Agreement are found to be invalid or unenforceable, or if they become invalid or unenforceable, the remainder shall remain valid and the invalid or unenforceable provision(s) shall be replaced by a valid and enforceable provision as close as possible to the intention of the parties at the time of the conclusion of the agreement.

13. Place of jurisdiction, liability

13.1. Damage to persons or property caused by the student shall be refunded by the parents, notwithstanding a possible liability on the part of the student.

13.2. Liability by Foxhill Secondary School for damage to students' personal belongings caused through slight negligence shall be expressly excluded.

13.3. The court having subject matter jurisdiction at the location of the school shall be exclusively competent to adjudicate any and all disputes arising from this agreement.
